FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Visiting during Covid-19.
The Works follows CDC guidelines and has enhanced our cleaning and disinfection protocols. By visiting The Works, you agree to comply with our reopening guidelines, including face masks for ages 8+, using social distancing, and following on-site signage to maximize safety during your visit.

What is your chaperone requirement for school groups? We require 1 adult for every 5-7 students that attend on the date of your visit. Groups that are unable to meet the required chaperone ratio will be charged the full admission for all adults.

I have a child/parent that have a Works membership. Can they use this membership during a school tour? Adult chaperones are welcome to use their membership for admission to The Works during a school field trip. Memberships cannot be used to cover the student fee portion of the school tour.

When can I schedule a school tour? Groups may make reservations at any point throughout the year. Our school year calendar opens on June 1st of each year and our summer calendar opens January 1st.

I’m interested in a program topic that you don’t have listed, what can I do? Our team is happy to work with you to develop a program that best fits your students and learning standards. If you are looking for something that we don’t currently have - let us know!

What if I can’t come to The Works, can The Works come to us? Absolutely! We can bring The Works to you with our Outreach programming. We offer exciting demonstrations for Large Group Assemblies and interactive, hands-on Classroom Sessions.

Do you offer a reduced cost for Title 1, LMI, or need-based assistance? We have a needs-based School Access Scholarship that provides reduced youth museum admission. Applications must be submitted no less than three weeks prior to your scheduled visit. Please note that scholarship funds are for admission only and cannot be used to cover fees related to educational program experiences.

Do you offer programs for homeschool or scouting organizations? All groups interested in scheduling a visit to The Works can select from our educational experiences that have been designed with Ohio Learning Standards in mind. If you have specific questions or interests, simply reach out to our Education team! Visit www.attheworks.org/homeschool for up to date information on our offerings!
